Women's, Girls Departments Transferred to Court House

On account of the large entries in the corn, hog and poultry departments of the products show, it was found necessary this afternoon to transfer the ladies and girls' club departments to the court house where the exhibits will be made and the prizes awarded.

Business men and farmers who expect to attend the banquet next Thursday night, which will be the closing feature of the Rush County Products Show opening today, are urged to make their reservations by Tuesday noon if they wish to make certain of a place at the table. The banquet will be served at the Knights of Pythias hall by the Pythian Sisters, who must know by Tuesday noon how many plates will be desired.

The banquet tickets are selling for $1 each and may be purchased at any of the Rushville banks, at the county agent's office in the court house or of E. R. Casady at the Casady dry goods store. Mr. Casady is chairman of the committee arranging for the banquet.

The principal address will be delivered by Frank B. White, representative of the Agricultural Publishers' Association, of Chicago. He is heralded as a speaker of great ability who is familiar with farm and city co-operation methods. It was also stated today that in response to the request of a number of farmers, Fred Palin of Newton, Ind., one of the judges at the corn show, will make a short talk.

Music will be provided by the Homer Col orchestra and some special musical numbers are being arranged.

The other night meeting of the show will be especially for farmers and will be held at the Graham Annex auditorium Wednesday evening. This principal address on this occasion will be made by C. F. Master-son of Greenfield, a speaker of rare ability who has addressed many farmers' meetings throughout the state. The American Farm Bureau Federation moving picture, "Spring Valley," will also be shown. This is a story of modern methods applied to farming and is said to be exceedingly interesting as a moving picture, aside from the lesson that it teaches.

PRINCIPALS CLUB IS ORGANIZED HERE

Heads of Twelve Consolidated
Schools of County Organize
For Mutual Benefit

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

The twelve school principals of the Rush county consolidated schools, met Saturday afternoon and perfected the Rush County Principals' club, which will hold regular meetings for the purpose of creating a closer relationship between the heads of the schools in the county.

County Superintendent W. E. Wagoner was chosen as chairman of the organization, and Miss Helen Hoffman of Homer was elected secretary. A committee composed of L. E. Dyer, Carthage, Floyd Miner, Manilla and A. R. Protsman of Arlington, were selected to make plans and to set a date for the first meeting of the new organization.

This new association is the first step to be taken in perfecting a needed organization of this kind, it has been pointed out, so that the schools can be united in their efforts by having the principals attend the regular county meetings.

OVER $25,000 PUT IN TRADE CHANNELS

Peoples Loan and Trust Company
Mails Out Christmas Fund Checks
Today

RUSH CO., BANK'S IS NEXT

More than $25,000 was placed in local trade channels today when the Peoples Loan and Trust company Christmas fund checks were placed in the mails. Many will not receive their checks until tomorrow.

Approximately $20,000 more will be made available for Christmas shoppers next Friday or Saturday when the Rush County National bank sends out its Christmas fund checks.

This makes a total of more than $45,000 which Rushville and Rush county people have saved during the year so that they will have a "nest egg" coming in at Christmas time when the needs are great.

The Christmas savings fund, which was started here several years ago, has become a very popular means of saving money and the two funds in Rushville this year were patronized as liberally as they were last year.

The mailing of the fund checks is expected to stimulate business locally because the purpose of most people in entering the fund is to save money for use at the holiday season.

IRISH CRISIS IS CARRIED TO KING

LYOYD GEORGE MEETS KING

Sinn Fein is Prepared to Take Over
Government in Ireland
Michael Collins Says

(By United Press)

London, Dec. 5.—Premier Lloyd George carried the Irish crisis to the king today. The premier and King George conferred more than an hour on the situation brought about by the Sinn Fein rejection of the latest peace offer.

Irish delegates meeting with British representatives was believed to be ready for a final showdown. The Irish negotiations are plunged into the greatest crisis of their history, an informant close to the premier, declared here today.

The committee of the Irish situation went into conference and it was announced a full cabinet meeting would be held at noon.

Sinn Fein is prepared to take over the government of Ireland, Michael Collins, commander-in-chief of the Irish army and peace delegate at London, declared in an exclusive interview with the United Press today, as negotiations crumbled.

"The tests of good government are capacity for making laws, the establishment and support of an efficient and impartial administration and Sinn Fein has these," the picturesque Irish war leader declared in the first interview to be given by any member of the Sinn Fein delegation since it has been in London.

"Sinn Fein's government has been carried on in circumstances that would have daunted and defeated any house of representatives that was not ardently devoted to the interests of the people and that had not an unusual political capacity for the business of government."

"The success of our government has even been acknowledged by the governmental leaders of the English."

"The Dail Eirrean courts of law are resorted to not only by our own citizens, Unionists, Catholics and Protestants, but by the English residents as well."

ORCHESTRA OFF TO AUSPICIOUS START

Call For First Rehearsal Brings Out

ORGANIZATION PERFECTED

Plans Made For Concert in The Near Future Because of Showing
Made in First Meeting

"The success of the community orchestra is assured," declared Miss Sarah McConnel, supervisor of music, this morning, following the first rehearsal which was held in the assembly room of the court house Sunday afternoon. Thirty musicians reported as the result of the first call issued and many more are expected next Sunday because a number were detained yesterday for various reasons.

Rehearsals will be held every Sunday afternoon in the assembly room, it was decided yesterday, and a permanent organization was formed with the election of E. E. Perrin as president, A. P. Wagoner, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Vivian Harris, corresponding secretary.

Plans were made for a concert in the very near future, because it was felt from showing made yesterday that the organization would soon be ready for its first public appearance. All of those reporting for the initial rehearsal were trained musicians who have been playing in orchestras for years, which accounted for the rehearsal going off so smoothly.

The musicians took up the study of good modern compositions and a fine insight into the reading and interpretation of the music was demonstrated, it was declared today. Those who attended were delighted at the way the organization started off and all were confident today that it would be the success which it merits.

The interest was revealed by the way the musicians remained and continued playing until 5:15 o'clock. The rehearsal started at three o'clock and at 4:30 they were asked if they cared to go on. It was the unanimous opinion that the rehearsal should be continued until after five o'clock.

A rising vote of thanks was given

Case of John Jackman of Milroy vs Big Four Delayed by Absence of Juror in Circuit Court

EARL MILLER ENTERS PLEA

The case of John Jackman of Milroy against the Big Four railroad was scheduled to start this morning in the circuit court, and after a jury had been selected the case was carried over until tomorrow on account of the absence of a witness.

The suit is for damages alleged to have incurred in shipping hogs from Crawfordsville to Milroy, in which the plaintiff alleges that 45 head of the hogs were not delivered.

Earl Miller was arraigned this morning before Judge Sparks on a charge of wife desertion, to which he pleaded not guilty. He provided bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance in court.

Field Ryker was produced in court by the sheriff of Ripley county on a charge pending against him here of unlawfully removing mortgaged property. Judge Sparks allowed him to go without bond, until the case is ready to be tried.

GLENWOOD CHURCH DEDICATED SUNDAY

Ceremony Conducted by W. G.
Friend of Minneapolis, Assisted
By G. I. Hoover of Indianapolis

DEBT PRACTICALLY LIFTED

The Glenwood Christian church was formally dedicated Sunday, practically free from debt. There was about $10,000 yet needed when the building was completed but most of this has been pledged, it was announced today following the campaign at the services Sunday to free the congregation of debt.

The dedicatory ceremony was performed by W. G. Friend of Minneapolis, assisted by the Rev. G. I. Hoover of Indianapolis and the Rev. Omer Haffard, the pastor. Three services were held during the day and a basket dinner was served in the spacious basement of the new edifice. An impressive part of the ceremony was the presentation of the key to the church by Russell Ruff, chairman of the building committee, to T. G. Richardson, president of the church board. Music was provided at all of the services by a male quartet from Clarksburg and the church choir.

The women of the church pledged $3,000 towards the new building and have already raised more than $1,000. They will give their annual bazaar and chicken dinner and oyster supper at the church Thursday to add to the fund. A friendship quilt was productive of $105.

Most of the Christian congregations of the county were represented by delegations who attended the dedication. The building is a modern light brick veneer structure with basement and parlors. It cost approximately $18,000. The Rev. Mr. Friend, who conducted meetings at the church last week, will preach again tonight.

WOMAN PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Mrs. Elizabeth Lawson Arrested on
Two Circuit Court Affidavits

Mrs. Elizabeth Lawson, age 32, was arrested late Saturday at her home 217 West Sixth street, charged with two affidavits filed in the circuit court, one being for prostitution and the other for keeping a house of ill-fame. When arraigned before Judge Sparks she entered a plea of not guilty to each charge and is in jail upon default of $500 on each charge.

The police have made one or two raids at the home recently, but it is said that they never were able to establish much evidence. A raid last Friday night was for an alleged possession of whiskey, but none was found.

URGES U. S. EXPEND MORE ON ITS ARMY

President Harding Says if Parley Fails Believes Country Should
Spend More Than $800,000,000

SUBMITS FIRST BUDGET

Estimates That Nation's Two Arms
Of Defense Should Expend More
Than 3 Times War Appropriations

By HERBERT W. WALKER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Harding today gave notice to the world powers here for the arms limitation conference that if this great international parley fails he believes the United States should expend more than $800,000,000 on its army and navy during the year ending June 30, 1923.

Submitting to Congress the first national budget prepared by Budget Director Dawes, Harding estimated that the nation's two arms of defense should expend $801,656,107 in the fiscal year 1923—or more than three times the pre-war appropriations of approximately $250,000,000. The estimates, which were framed without regard for any limitation of armament that may result from the conference, are about $66,000,000 less than is being expended this year. The President in this respect is following his policy that the United States cannot make a big cut in its military and naval appropriations until all the powers definitely agree to do likewise.

The federal government during the year ending June 30, 1923, will cost the people of the United States approximately three and a half billion dollars, Harding estimated.

Although this amount is about three times the cost of the federal government before the war, the President pointed out that the estimated expenditures for the fiscal year of 1923 would be $2,032,285,962.30 less than the payments from the federal purse for 1921, during which year he assumed office. The 1923 expenditures, he said, would be $462,167,639 less than for the present fiscal year of 1922.

Harding submitted to Congress estimates of appropriations for the fiscal year of 1923; and estimated expenditures and receipts for the same period. Despite stringent economy, the government on the basis of estimates submitted will face a deficit of $167,571,977 as the result of 1923 fiscal operations.

Total receipts of the government during 1923 were estimated at $3,338,182,750, while expenditures, actual cash paid out of the treasury were placed at $3,505,754,727. Appropriations asked for today total $3,801,113,659.53, but this includes $576,238,066 in postal appropriations, which will be paid from postal revenues. This leaves a net total of $3,224,875,595.53. The difference between this amount and the actual cash expenditure will be made up by appropriations which continue from year to year.

This year, the budget report shows, the federal government will expend $3,967,922,366, as compared with $5,538,040,689.30, last year. Receipts this year will be $3,943,

ELKS SPEAKER IN A LOYALTY APPEAL

George M. Barnard Emphasizes Necessity of Counteracting Influences
Tearing Down Government

ANNUAL LODGE OF SORROW

Speaker Eulogizes Principles of Order in Tribute to Memory of Departed Members

Eulogizing the principles and teachings of the Elks lodge, of which loyalty is the cardinal one, George M. Barnard of Newcastle, member of the Indiana Public Service commission, speaking at the annual Lodge of Sorrow at the Elks home Sunday afternoon, emphasized the necessity of all patriotic Americans counteracting the influences which have been at work for the last decade to tear down the government and substitute a reign of paternalism.

Several hundred men and women assembled in the recently completed addition of the lodge home for the service which was held in memory of Elks who have died since Rushville lodge No. 1307 was established. The ritualistic part of the service was carried out by the officers of the lodge and the music for the occasion consisted of a solo by Mrs. Carl F. Behrer and a duet by Miss Bernice Kelso and O. P. Wamsley.

Mr. Barnard commented on the impressiveness of the Lodge of Sorrow and asserted that "To us there is nothing held dearer. It is one of the cardinals which Elks hold foremost."

The speaker congratulated the lodge on the way departed brothers were remembered and also on the improvement of the lodge home.

"I am sure you have well taken care of the better nine-tenths of us," he said.

"It is a beautiful custom and one that must be insisted on," stated Mr. Barnard, again referring to the memorial, "because if we are to perpetuate the worth of example, it is necessary that we recall the virtues of men we have known. Not disparaging any other order, I believe the Elks memorial service is the most beautiful one. We do not claim to have all of the virtues and we are popularly ascribed to have some of the virtues, but the Elks are covered with a broad spirit of compassion, a kindly feeling for the needy that is seldom found in any organization. A part of that which we teach is the broad charity that is a part of us. I do not mean alms giving or material

URGES U. S. TO SPEND MORE ON ARMY

453,663, leaving a deficit to start the new fiscal year of 1923 of $24,468,703; while receipts last year of $5,624,932,960, exceeded expenditures by $86,892,271 61.

The President's message reveals that Dawes was able to reduce the first federal budget $122,806,310.95 below the amounts asked by the departments.

Under a new system installed by Dawes, he estimated the actual expenditures from each department during the next fiscal year and then presented the appropriations asked. These differ because of continuing appropriations which increase the amount the Treasury pays out each year above the Congressional appropriations. This year, this increase was nearly $900,000,000, but for 1923 Dawes has cut the continuing appropriations down to about $281,000,000.

It is probable that Congress will cut many of the estimates sharply. If the arms conference, is a success immediate reductions, will be made in the army and navy estimates.

With the appropriation request the President submitted an estimate of the Treasury Department that the revised revenue bill would yield only $2,511,000,000 in the fiscal year 1923, or less than half of the taxes collected during the war. The revised tariff bill is expected to yield only $330,000,000.

The picture of the government fiscal situation was sent to Congress under the name Dawes. It was prefaced by a brief message by the President.

In his report, Dawes emphasized that the government must be run like a business corporation.

"No properly organized private corporation would handle its business in this way", Dawes said, referring to past government methods.

In an emphatic manner, Dawes urged Congress to repeal all outstanding continuing appropriations, revolving funds, and the like, which cause a drain on the treasury that does not appear on the surface. He cited as an example the naval supply evolving fund, in which the Treasury must keep $250,000,000, and recommended that it be cut to $150,000,000.

Comparing the government to a big business corporation, Dawes said the following defects have existed in the past which should be corrected by the budget system:

- 1—The President has been able to give virtually no attention to routine expenditures.
- 2—The cabinet has been allowed to run departmental business without centralized control.
- 3—Coordination has been lacking among the departments.
- 4—The corporation was not operated on a profit basis.
- 5—No real balance sheet was ever prepared.
- 6—No real attempt was made to keep expenditures within the cash allotted.
- 7—Unwise projects were continued and no report was ever made to the president, the directors (cabinet) as to continuing large expenditures.
- 8—Conferences to effect co-ordination were avoided.
- 9—Administrative heads of departments were not selected because of business qualifications.
- 10—Subordinate officials were allowed to state their needs directly to congress and thus encouraged to oppose general executive control.
- 11—The public has encouraged some needless appropriations and in some instances has placed a premium on spending rather than saving. Dawes then outlined the functions of ten boards he has formed to remove the faults.

Frank Hutson, Jr., was arrested this morning in Justice Stech's court on a charge of driving his automobile in West Sixth street, without the necessary lights. He pleaded not guilty, and went to jail to await his trial on Wednesday, being unable to provide the $200 bond. It was charged that he operated his automobile on November 28, thirty minutes after sun-down, and 30 minutes before sun-up.

PASSENGERS CRASH HEADON

Ten to Twelve Persons Killed or Burned to Death at Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 5.—Ten to twelve persons were killed or burned to death and thirteen injured, seventeen miles north of here when two passenger trains on the Newton division of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad crashed head-on.

The trains, both locals were made up in a large part of wood coaches. Many of the cars burst into flames when the two trains crashed and made it impossible for many of the victims to escape.

The engineers of the two trains were unable to see the approach of the other because of a high rock wall on each side of the track. According to Reading officials, the crew of the train 5:15 over-ran orders, probably passing a signal set against it.

EDUCATIONAL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

of the flag. Sing patriotic songs. Study the meaning of the flag at half mast and other positions.

A list of 100 words was selected from the constitution of the United States to be used as a spelling contest for pupils in the grades from 7 to 12, and on Friday all of the grades mentioned above will be given the spelling test.

B. J. Burris, state superintendent of public instruction in bringing attention of the observance of the American Education Week, had the following to say:

"The main purposes of the week are to inform the public of the accomplishments and needs of the public schools and to secure co-operation and support of the public in meeting these needs and to teach and foster good Americanism.

"No service has suffered more from unintelligent criticism than the schools. The average citizen does not read educational literature or accounts of teachers' meetings or visit schools to learn what they are doing. He has a conception of school only as he knew it in his own school days. American Education Week should give the taxpayers who furnish the funds for the public school, first-hand knowledge of the service for which they pay. Education cannot afford to neglect this opportunity to advertise its aims and purposes.

"All communities are urged to observe American Education Week, December 4-10. The program for the week may be under the general supervision of the superintendent of schools, the commander of the local American Legion Post, the mayor, or other chief governmental officer of the community. These officials may call to their aid such other advisers and help as they deem necessary.

ALL EYES ARE AGAIN TURNED TOWARD TOKIO

Upon Japanese Government's Answer to Big Three's Agreement, Will Depend Parley's Success

CHINA IS DISSATISFIED

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 5.—The eyes of the arms conference were again today turned toward Tokio.

Under the Japanese government's eabled answer to a program, approved by the big three—Hughes, Balfour and Kato—will depend whether the immediate success of the conference is to be assured. This program as exclusively revealed by the United Press calls for the scrapping of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, the substitution of a four power Pacific understanding which might be enlarged, the non-fortification of the Pacific and the acceptance by Japan of the Hughes 5-5-3 capital ship ratio. Tokio's reply is expected within a few days.

Meanwhile, the Chinese are plainly dissatisfied with the turn of affairs in the settlement of Chinese demands. The Shantung mediation group meets again today.

FORMAL CALL ISSUED FOR SPECIAL SESSION

Purpose Not Stated, But Governor Hopes to Limit it to Reformatory Removal Question

TO MAKE OLD LAW WORKABLE

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.—Governor Warren T. McCray today issued the formal call for the special legislature to meet at ten o'clock a. m., December 14.

The call did not state the purpose of the session although the governor still hopes to limit the session to the consideration of the question of removing the reformatory from Jeffersonville.

Colgate and Company, purchasers of the present reformatory site, are demanding possession of their property and have offered $100,000 additional if the unworkable law enacted by the last legislature is made right to give the immediate possession.

"In my opinion the public welfare does not require a special session of the general assembly", the governor said in his proclamation, "except to settle the reformatory removal question".

MANY PLANTS RUN AT NORMAL CAPACITY

Strike of Unionized Packing Plant Employees Against Slash in Wages Starts Today

MEN READY TO TAKE PLACES

(By United Press)

Strike of unionized packing plant employees of the country, called today in protest against wage slashes and refusal of employers to recognize the union was only partly effective.

Many plants in large packing centers claimed to be operating normal capacity. The "big five" in Chicago, claimed to be operating 95 percent normal. Indications, according to neutral observers, were that about 12,000 of the 35,000 employees were out. Large lines of men looking for work stood before employment offices, ready to take place of strikers.

Kansas City employers declared 70 to 80 percent of the men were at work, while unions said the percentage was smaller.

The only violence reported was a few fist fights in Chicago and St. Paul.

The Fable of a Dog

New York, Dec. 5.—Once upon a time there was a collie dog that did tricks in the circus. He walked on his hind legs and on his forepaws for applause.

But one day he got lost. He went hungry and grew thin and shaggy.

Yesterday he wandered into a school room at Jamaica and suddenly finding himself in the presence of spectators, this old troupier immediately began hopping on his hind legs and on his fore paws—expecting applause.

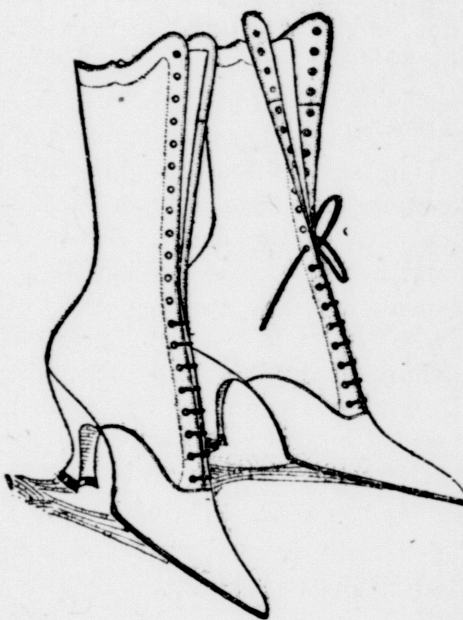

He got five bullets from a policeman's gun when somebody yelled "mad dog."

See America First

Some people have an intense yearning to visit foreign lands. They are not satisfied with the place they call home.

You can stand on a certain street corner in Paris and see people from many nations stroll by within a limited time. It is the same in London, and Rome, and in any of the other great metropolitan cities of the old world.

Wherever there is wealth and fashion and excitement you will find congregated people from the four corners of the earth. They dress and act a little differently, and speak in many tongues, but otherwise they are just people—like yourself, and others around you.

There is more to be gained by seeing our own country than there is in traveling in foreign lands.

And there is infinitely more to be gained by being happy and contented in our own homes.

We Stay Free

The Australian representatives at the armaments conference want to see an alliance between the United States, Great Britain, and Japan. It may be that such an arrangement would work to the benefit of Australia, but it is doubtful if it would be more effective than the agreements that are to come out of the Washington conference. But, quite regardless of whom it would aid the United States is never going to enter any such combination. It was the independence of this country from the league of nations and other international obligations that enabled it to take the initiative in calling the Washington conference. The United States can exert a far greater influence on world affairs if it retains its freedom of action.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Princess Two Days

A story of romantic quality, with that continental flavor which has been imported to most of her stories by Mme. Elinor Glyn, is included in "The Great Moment," in which Gloria Swanson makes her debut as a Paramount star, and which will be shown at the Princess theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

Monte M. Katterjohn, working side by side with the author, prepared the screen version of the story which opens at an orgy in St. Petersburg when a British aristocrat is captivated by and marries a woman from the plains of Tartary—a Gypsy. The latter leaves him a daughter, Nadine, and in this role Miss Swanson has one of the greatest of her screen careers.

The tempestuous nature of her mother is transmitted to the child; the longing for the nomadic life is an inborn passion and she takes the Knight Bayard of history, "without fear and without reproach," as her ideal. A love story follows—a vivid, colorful, perfervid romance, the story shifting across oceans and continents to America and the wilds of Nevada. Later the scene of the story is taken up in Washington and the strict official life of the capital. Finally, the lovers find happiness in the Nevada hills—tasting of heaven and becoming the equals of the gods.

"Good Women," the new super-special production which will be the star attraction at the Mystic Theatre today and Tuesday. The new picture is the screen adaptation of an original story, "Good Women," written by C. Gardner Sullivan, the prominent novelist and scenario writer. Not only has it this stamp of approval, but Robertson-Cole placed a still higher value upon it when they turned the manuscript over to Louis J. Gasnier to direct. The director of the famous "Kismet," with Otis Skinner, has turned out another excellent production.

"Good Women" presents a vital, compelling drama in which the eternal clash of men and women against the rules of convention laid down by an inexorable social system, forms the central theme. We have among the characters the woman whose conduct places her in the good woman class and the other who, declaring that her life is her own to live as she sees fit, sneers at convention and becomes a social outcast. There is a rather strong lesson in "Good Women," but it is in no sense a preachment.

The production is made real and sincere through the earnest efforts of the powerful cast chosen to portray the various characters. Rosemary Theby, whose dark, vivacious beauty and sterling histrionic ability have made her one of the foremost actresses of the silent drama, is an outstanding figure in the role of Katherine Brinkley, an orphaned heiress, with a dangerous contempt for all things conventional.

A Rushville Interview

Mr. Heany Tells His Experience

The following brief account of an interview with a Rushville man five years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

John Heany, 616 W. 3rd St., says: "I had trouble with my kidneys and the secretions passed too frequently both day and night, and I had to get up several times during the night. It was very painful to pass the secretions and often they would hardly pass at all. They were highly colored and contained a sediment. My back was weak and lame too. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Johnston & Co.'s Drug Store and they relieved me a great deal." (Statement given August 25, 1915.)

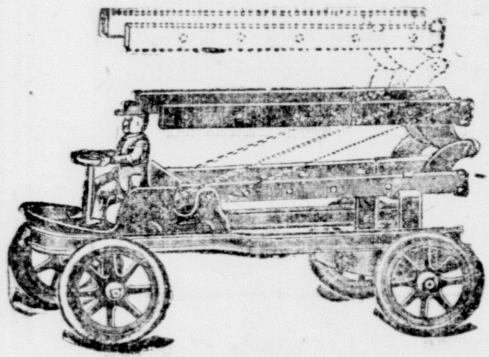

On November 4, 1920, Mr. Heany added: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as I had several years ago. I use them occasionally and always get the same results."

LIBERTY NO MATCH FOR LOCAL CROWD

Held to Three Points Saturday Night and Rushville Sharp Shooters

REAL BATTLE FOR 10 MINUTES

Outcome Never in Doubt After That.
However, When Rushville Opens
Up Assortment of Tricks

The Liberty high school basketball team proved to be no match for the Rushville high school here Saturday night, when the visiting team counted only one field goal and a lone foul goal, giving Rushville a 38 to 3 victory.

In the preliminary game the second team from the local high school defeated the Everton high school team 27 to 22, in a game in which the visitors staged a rally in the last half, after lagging behind 16 to 6 in the first half.

In the game against Liberty the outcome never was in doubt from the time that the locals scored first. The first ten minutes was a real battle with neither team showing much accuracy on goal shooting, and Rushville leading 4 to 0.

Soon after the start Pugh missed a foul goal, and then Thompson for Liberty had a chance but missed it also. Pugh, however, connected for the first two field baskets that put his team in the lead.

Crimm, the diminutive forward for the locals, broke loose soon afterwards with three field baskets, that gave Rushville a ten point lead, while the visitors were scoreless.

Liberty had three chances on fouls during the first half but failed to count on any of them, while Pugh made good one out of his three chances.

Rushville heaved their score up to 21 points, holding Liberty at the zero mark during the first half, and the locals in the second half had the score up to 25 before Thompson for Liberty counted for his lone field goal, which was shot from the center of the floor. Thompson also made his free shot shortly before the game ended, when the score was 34 to 2.

The last few minutes of play saw three substitutes go in for Rushville, and they managed to keep Liberty from scoring, and Walker counted for a field goal for Rushville.

It was the first game for Liberty, and the team showed a good fighting spirit, but they could not successfully penetrate the defense of the locals. Liberty also had a good defense, but it did not hold together at all times, and Rushville broke through.

The locals missed a great many shots that should have counted for goals.

at Buffalo, N. Y.

COMMISSIONER LANDIS THERE

Buffalo, N. Y. Dec. 5—Baseball's lofty prima donnas and the humblest of the chorus were gathered here today.

The biggest powers of the majors and the meekest of the bushes were mobilizing for objectives at the twenty first annual meeting of the minors tomorrow.

Among major leaguers acting merely as outsiders to occupy seats at the ringside were Judge Landis, commissioner of baseball. John A. Heydler, president of the National League and owners and managers of practically every club in the National and American leagues.

Ben Johnson, head of the American League changed his plans at the last minute and decided to go to Excelsior Springs.

While due attention was being paid by the delegates to individual interests to come before the session, the big talk centered about the rumored house cleaning in the International circuit are reported to be cleaning out from top to bottom. They are Baltimore, Buffalo and Toronto.

Michael H. Sexton, president of the Minors said the most important item of business for the session is a stringent economic record.

Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duncan of near Fairview entertained yesterday with a prettily appointed turkey dinner honoring the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Duncan, to Horace Kaehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kaehl of this county. The centerpiece for the table was a bride cake decorated with dancing cupids. The color scheme used in the decorations was pink and white. Covers were laid for forty guests including relatives and neighbors. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Gene Turner, sister of the bridegroom, of Connersville. Mr. and Mrs. Kaehl were married Thursday December 1, at 1 p. m. at the Christian church parsonage in Connersville. After a short wedding trip they returned home Saturday.

ORCHESTRA OFF TO AUSPICIOUS START

to all of the organizations which have endorsed the community orchestra and also to the ladies of the G. A. R. who have loaned their new piano to be used at all rehearsals.

Musicians and others were elated today over the prospects for the organization, because of the splendid interest shown at the first rehearsal. It is generally realized that the city has some splendid talent, but it has never been brought together under one leadership so that it should be truly appreciated.

It is believed that a creditable community orchestra will do much to arouse a stronger community spirit and home pride and will be a source of entertainment for Rushville people which can not be overestimated. It is also advocated as a means of stimulating music interest

Foreigners Attending Arms Conference See Nation That Believes World Peace is Very Desirable

AMERICA IS ALSO LEARNING

They See That All Questions That Give Any Trouble at Conference Grow Out of Imperialism

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN (Copyright 1921 by U. P.)

The arms conference has given the delegates and foreign newspaper men a chance to become acquainted with the American attitude on international questions.

Our visitors see a nation that believes world peace as not only possible, but very desirable. They observe no evidence of an armed force. While they will see more men in uniform in Washington than anywhere else, they are not numerous even in the nation's capital and their manners do not impress the observer with the idea that they play a prominent part in the nation. Outside of Washington, the visitors scarcely see a soldier and they hear very little of the things that pertain to war. They are returning home with a vision of what is possible when the government is in the hands of the masses and receives its inspiration from those who produce the wealth of the richest nation in the world.

The people of the United States are also learning something and what they learn will tend to increase their devotion to peace and their opposition to anything imperialistic. They see that all the questions that give any trouble at the conference grow out of imperialism, it is only where the doctrine of self determination, so insisted they recommended by Ex-President Wilson is ignored that trouble arises.

Although the conference has been in session less than a month, outlying possessions and outlying commercial interests have already twice clouded the skies. Great Britain and France, who were mutually dependent upon each other in the recent war, have found themselves at odds—not a serious altercation, but enough to indicate graver possibilities. Then there was a flare up between France and Italy—not fatal to friendship but irritating. The acute question of the Orient grew out of spheres of influence upon weaker nations and the occupancy of territory which must be held if at all by force.

America finds that there is one tree in the garden, the fruit of which is forbidden, if the nation would avoid international complication and that tree is imperialism.

Because our people are increasingly impressed with the dangers that follow in the wake of imperialism they are increasingly opposed to any sort of alliance that will make us share in an armed way, in the controversies that continually arise because of conflicting financial interests. The association of nations proposed by President Harding will contain no provision that will involve us in other people's quarrels unless our congress, acting with entire freedom shall consider it a proper cause for declaration of war.

ARBuckle CLAIMS MORAL ACQUITTAL

Movie Comedian Points Out One Woman Who Refused to Consider Evidence Prevented Verdict

SECOND TRIAL JANUARY 9

Murky Atmosphere of Whispered or Implied Charges All That Remains of the Case Today

By M. D. TRACY (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, Dec. 5.—A murky atmosphere of whispered or implied charges of all sorts, was left behind today by the manslaughter trial of Roseoe Arbuckle which ended with disagreement and discharge of the jury.

Veiled declarations of the principal characters in the unfinished drama, charging that "propaganda" had been used to influence the jurors was the most tangible story of the many.

The rumors started when the bailiffs adopted the practice of changing rooms for the jury. After Saturday noon no two sessions were held in the same room. Many were in ignorance of exactly where the jury was meeting. Reports—unconfirmed of course—had it that dictaphones hidden in the walls were responsible for the shift of rooms.

When the jury reported to the court the foreman stated the count was ten to two for acquittal.

Arbuckle was to leave today for Southern California for a few days of rest. He will then return to San Francisco to join his lawyers in laying plans for the second trial which will begin Jan. 9. He issued a statement late yesterday declaring that "one woman" on the jury had prevented a verdict and claiming that the result is a moral if not a legal acquittal.

District Attorney Matthew Brady was plainly pleased at the failure of Arbuckle's "million dollar defense" to obtain an acquittal. He issued a formal statement declaring he had done his duty "although opposed by wealth, power and influence". He said he was ready to proceed Jan. 9 with a second trial. Brady denied claims that thousands of dollars had been spent by the state.

"I believe $2,500 will cover our expenses" he told the United Press. It was rumored the defense had cost half a million dollars.

What went on behind the bolted doors of the jury room was something of a mystery except for the meager light shed by formal statements from August Fritze, foreman of the jury.

Fritze charged that "one woman" believed to have been Mrs. Helen Hubbard, "refused to consider the evidence" and from the beginning, said she would "cast her ballot for conviction and would not change it until Hell froze over".

For Years This Indianapolis Woman Didn't Enjoy A Single Meal

"Tanlae is worth more than its weight in gold to me for it has made me a well and happy woman," said Mrs. W. M. Collins, 1220 East Georgia St., Indianapolis, Ind.

"At the time I began taking it I hadn't enjoyed a meal for years, for everything I ate disagreed with me. I had several awful dizzy spells at times too, and also such attacks of smothering that I would have to fight to get my breath.

"In addition to the good I received from Tanlae I want to say a good word for the Tanlae Vegetable Pills, which have entirely overcome the old habit of constipation from which I suffered a great deal."

Tanlae is sold in Rushville by B. Johnson Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement.

France and Great Britain Formally Decide to Release Holdings and Japan Also Makes Offer

LATTER INVOLVES SHANTUNG

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 5.—France and Great Britain has formally decided to withdraw from leased territory in China. Japan expressed her position in Manchuria with willingness to withdraw from Shantung and to discuss withdrawal from Manchuria.

China asked relinquishment of Japan's lease holds on Port Arthur and Dairen (obtained as spoils of the Russo-Japan war) but Japan stated that developments had been made that they could not see their way out by giving up the leases.

The British declared they would give up their leases near Hongkong. The French, British and Japanese action taken in the meeting of the Far Eastern committee of the arms conference which for the first time took up the question of leased territory and the sphere of influence in China.

Viviani for France presented a resolution providing for the withdrawal of all foreign nations from leased territory. The French position as explained by Viviani, was that France would withdraw if other nations would. The British delegation expressed willingness to withdraw on the same conditions. The Japanese will withdraw from Shantung but could not at present withdraw from Manchuria.

assistance. I mean the charity that was the same as the charity of the scandal-footed God-man that forgives and forgets. For it is our motto "The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands; their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory."

"The thing that makes the Man of Nazareth what He was, was the charity He possessed. I like the broad charity in the Elks lodge. I would rather the Elks be known for that than any other trait. If men's motives and impulses are right, can't we build a better world for ourselves by forgiving and forgetting, than by maligning?"

"Another thing that always appealed to me is that no session of this lodge can never open unless the open Bible and the American flag are on the altar yonder. We believe in the teachings of God and our country. There is no divided allegiance in this lodge."

Mr. Barnard commented on the excellent record of the order during the war as an example of its loyalty and patriotism.

"These orders must not be listless or purposeless," he continued. They must live up to their teachings. Loyalty to the government is essential and it does not permit of paternalism of radicalism such as has shown itself in the last decade.

"It is the obligation of every American to strike out straight from the shoulder when he sees anything is detrimental to the people. We are going to seed on class legislation. The laws in the last decade have tended to extend privileges to certain classes to the detriment of all the people. Such legislation is un-American and foreign to our ideals of government."

The speaker asserted the most cowardly act of congress was the passage of the Adamson law "while a few thousand men stood outside and held the watch on the senate with the threat to tie up the transportation of the country."

"It was the blackest day of our history," he asserted, "because it acknowledged the impotency of our government and recognized the rights of one class over the rights of one hundred and ten million God-fearing, flag-loving citizens. We have to love our country to save her. We can't do it with the army or navy. Men can not save her with their legs, their heads or their arms. It must be in their hearts. We must have more flag waving in the heart and less in the hand."

In closing, Mr. Barnard discussed the arms conference briefly, asserting that he would "not give a cent for steel disarmament without moral disarmament."
